Q.5. Which of the following will launch a new credit rating agency next year in response to its concerns about what it views as unfair ratings given to countries?

- A) Asian Group
- B) European Union
- C) I2U2 Group
- D) African Union

Answer : D

- ✓ The African Union plans to launch a new African credit rating agency next year in response to its concerns about what it views as unfair ratings given to African countries.
- ✓ The agency will generate its own evaluation of lending risks associated with African countries.
- ✓ It will operate within the continent, self-funding its operations, and aims to provide additional context for investors when making decisions about purchasing African bonds or extending private loans to countries.
- ✓ The African Union and its member nations' leaders assert that the "big three" ratings agencies – Moody's, Fitch, and S&P Global Ratings – do not fairly assess the lending risks associated with African countries. They also allege that these agencies are quicker to downgrade African countries, especially during crises such as the global health crisis.
- ✓ A study by the UN earlier had shown that subjective biases in credit ratings had cost African countries a combined US$74.5 billion. This was through funding opportunities lost and excess interest paid on public debt.
- ✓ About African Union (AU):
- ✓ The African Union (AU) is a continental body consisting of the 55 member states that make up the countries of the African Continent.
- ✓ It was officially launched in 2002 and replaced its predecessor, the Organization of African Unity (OAU), which was founded in 1963.
